C--an you
A--nnounce
to the world you're proud to be an SCA'er?
Yes, if you go
to B.H.S.
'cause
we've an organization
to be proud of.

Our leaders
this year
are Mrs. Marks, sponsor; Mary Jane Philpott,
treas; Gladys
Inman, vice pres.;
Shirley Elliott,
president; Christine
Wilson, reporter;
Frances Young, sec.

Shirley, as the first
girl president, has been well worth her salt. Wonder if there isn't room for her in Washington? During this year, she has done much to strengthen the SCA. Old committees have been revised and new ones established in order to have them all working better. Baskets were sent to the needy at Thanksgiving and again at Christmas. Each student, working under a committee head, has had a part in making the SCA a success. Here's to 1950, the best year yet!

 Frances Young, assist. business manager; Hugh Miller, business manager; Miss Ashworth, Jean Hankins, editor; Doris Jean Barber, Assist. editor.

THE TOPPER STAFF

It takes more than just a camera to make good pictures but we can be sure of them with Jimmy Bradshaw, Jerry Soyars, Shirley Elliott and Charlotte Fitts on the photography staff.

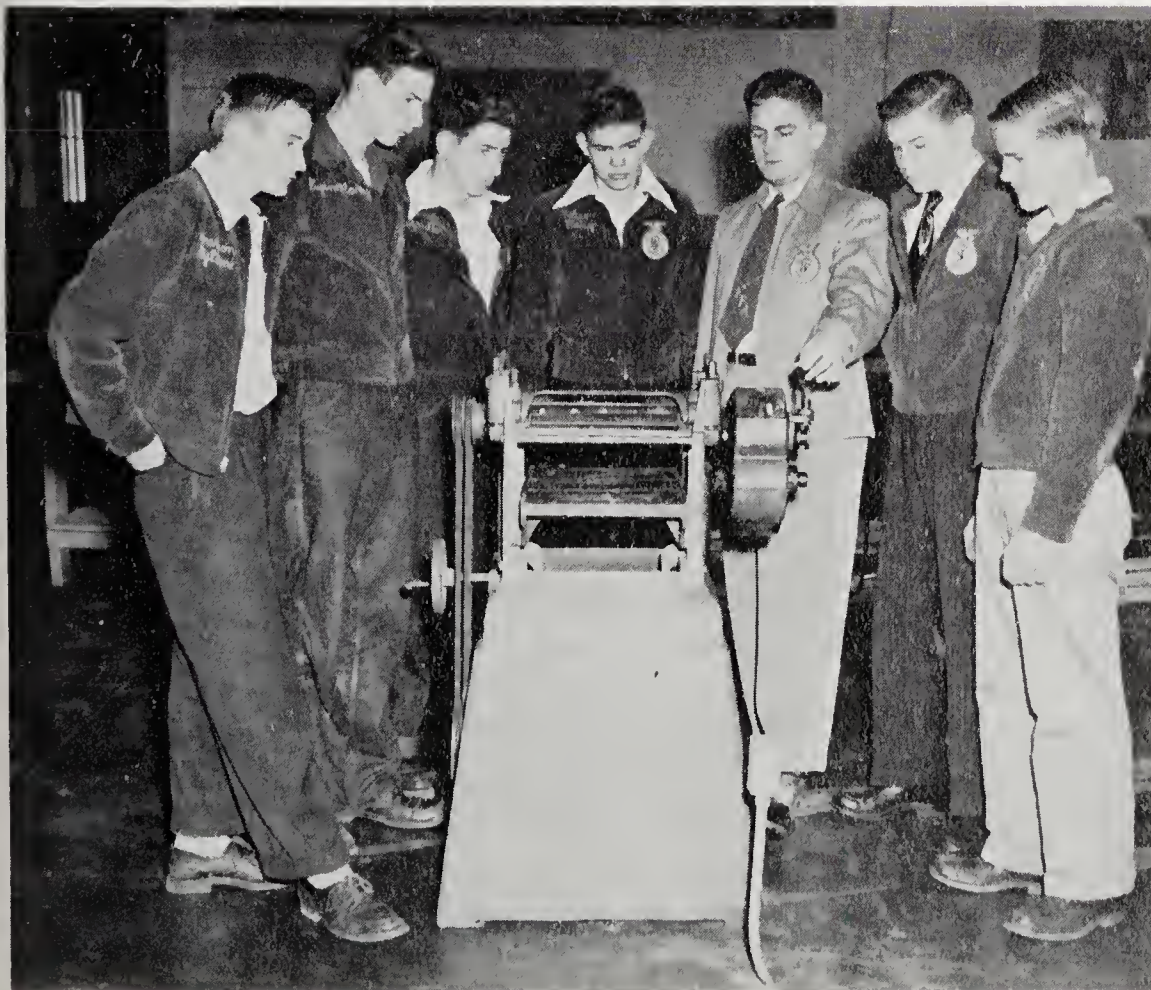

QUIET! Genius at work? Nope, just the editorial staff pounding out words. Imre Joe Broome, Randall Hall and Belvin Dodd really manufacture them.

"How about an ad in our Topper?" That's what merchants have been hearing from Faye Calvert, Joyce Still, Barbara Dyer, Eugene Dudley, Annie Bolden, Joanne Bateman and Gladys Inman.

FFA boys are always up in the air over something--a calf project, a Degree Team contest, or a banquet. These boys really make things hum--Gilmore Hundley, Hugh Miller, Eugene Dudley, Luke Mattox, Willie Thornton, Charles French, Johnny Moore, Nelson Haley, Paul Shorter, James Hyler, Emerson Hylton, James Thornton, Miles Grizzle, and Tommy Gatewood. Mr. Bryant, advisor, has his feet firmly planted on the floor.

Parliamentary procedure is said to be known by the officers of the FFA. We're sure Reginald Carter, reporter; Eugene Hardy, vice pres.; Hardy Carter, president; Bernard Green, sec. ; Mr. Bryant, advisor; Billy Gusley, watchdog; and Raymond Haley, treas. are capable of conducting any meeting.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Are there any men looking? We hope so because these girls are certainly trying hard to impress them. The old adage, the way to a man's heart is through his stomach, has been taken seriously by Gladys Inman, Frances Young, Miss Robertson, Becky Moore, Shirley Elliott, and Dorothy Taylor.

Other members of the club believe that good grooming and the practice of economy by making one's own clothes are as effective as cooking. So Christine Wilson, Miss Robertson, Joanne Bateman, Betty Lou Echols, Jean Shackelford, and Madeline Boyd get busy sewing.

Cooking and sewing occupy only a part of their time. The other is spent attending county and local meetings, completing projects,

BETA CLUB

"Be a Better Beta" is the slogan of the members of this club and they live up to it in every way. No person can wear the pen who has a grade of less than a B. Active club members are, seated: Doris Jean Barber, June Gammon, Mary Jane Philpott, Nina Law, Nellie Moss and Jeanne Lilly. Standing, Patsy Robertson, Miss Braswell, Peggy Robertson, Betty Arnn, and Belvin Dodd. Though they are the bright lights of the school, club members are not stuffy. They get into as much mishhief and have as much fun as the next group--example, one of their horrible initiations! When the occasion demands it, they lay aside all nonsense and become quite dignified. Club officers are Jeanne Lilly, president; Dorothy Lillard, vice president; Nina Law, treasurer; and Betty Arnn, secretary.

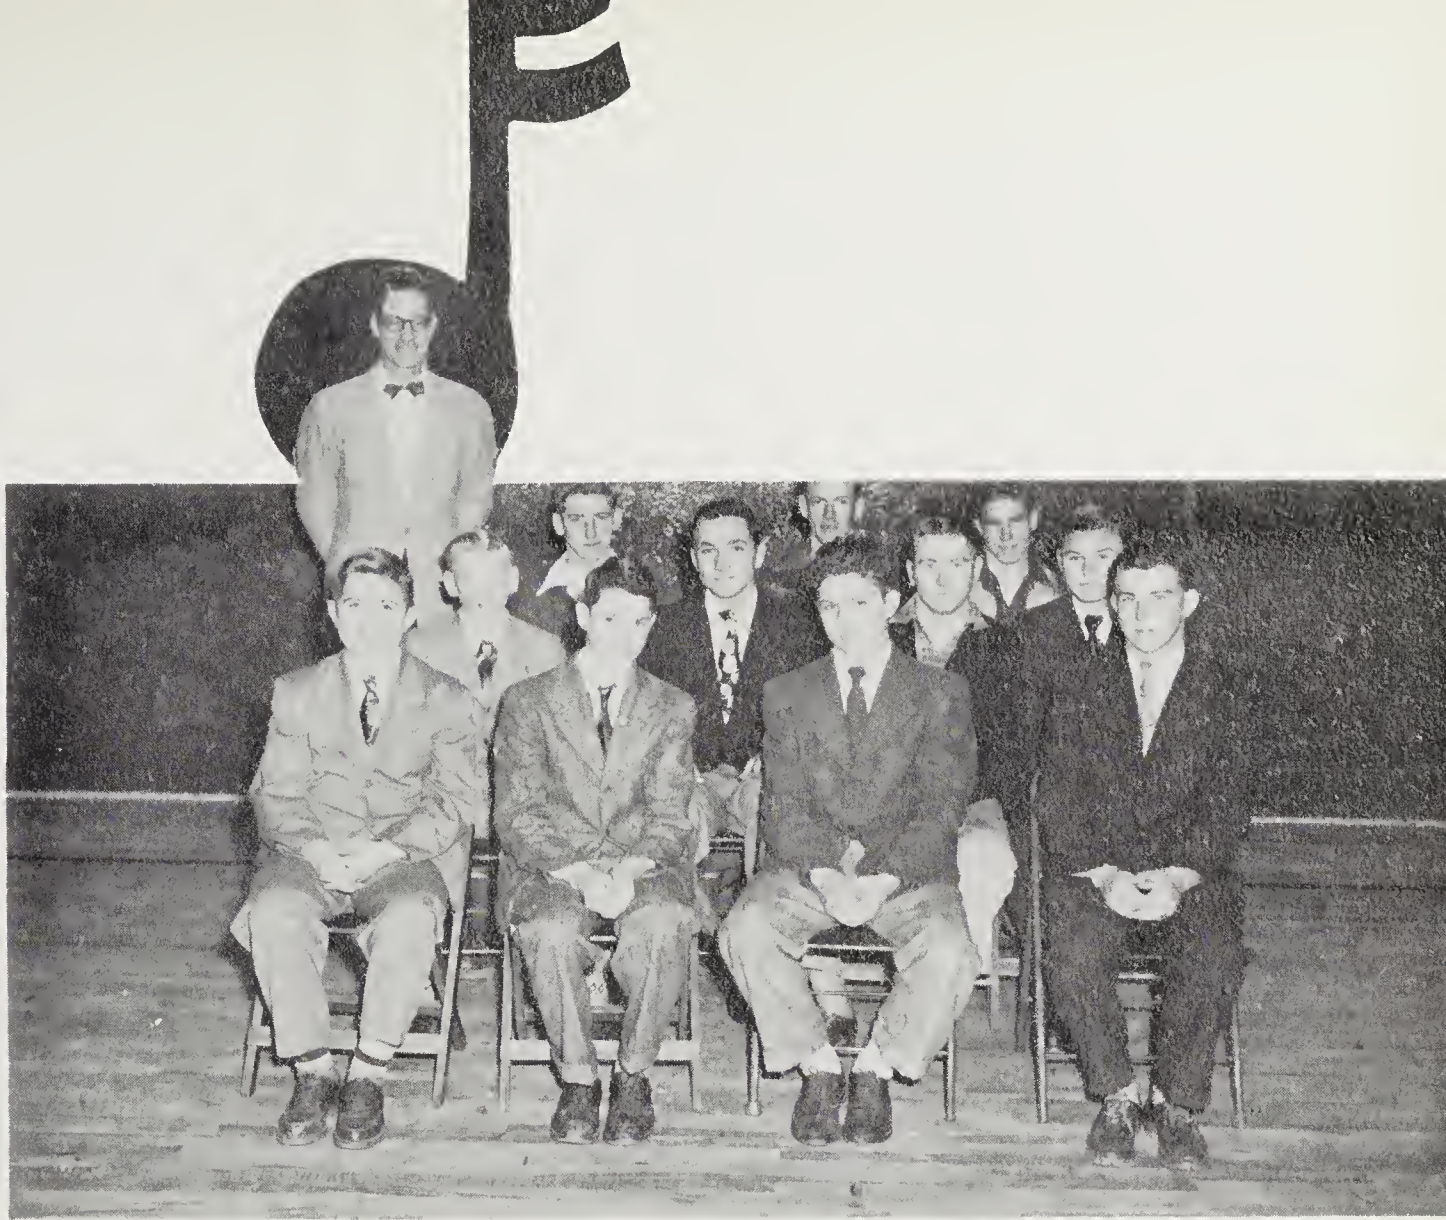

G L E E C L U B

Glee Club officers must lead the group so as Edith Crabb strikes the cord, Jerry Soyars, president; Hazel Hinton, alto section leader; Christine Wilson, sec.-treas.; Gladys Inman, vice pres.; George Davis, base leader, give out with "Dixie".

Introducing the alto section--1st. R.: Amanda Hines, Bessie Strader, Betty Montgomery, Bertha Strader, Bonnie Hyler, Ruby Salmons, Panny Newman; 2nd. R.: Edith Crabb, Tootsie Newman, Barbara Broome, Peggy Inman, Carolyn Wilson, Barbara Dyer, Jo-Anne Minter; 3rd. R.: Shirley Elliott, Hazel Hinton, Betty Arnn, Ann Bullington, Jeanne Lilly, Imre Jo Broome.

Come right this way and meet the musical gentlemen-1st.R.: Tommy Furr, Tommy Owen, Randall Hall, Billy Bryant; 2nd.R. C. C. Inman, Jerry Soyars, George Davis, Billy Gusley; 3rd. R.: Hardy Carter, Eugene Hardy, Carlton Richardson; standing, Mr. Marks, Glee Club director.

No self-respecting Glee Club can function without a soprano section. Making up this section are, 1st.R.: Dorothy Taylor, June Gammon, Lois Matherly, Dorothy Soyars, Barbara Oakes, June Pribble, Rebecca Moore, Annie Bolden, 2nd. R.: Betty Lou Echols, Jean Shackelford, Peggy Robertson, Constance Young, Joanne Bateman, Doris Jean Barber, Gladys Inman, Frances Young, 3rd. R.: Barbara Lawson, Joyce Still, Christine Wilson, Madeline Boyd, Patsy Robertson, Evelyn Crabb, Nina Law, Margaret Keatts.

HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL

High-light of the Carnival is the crowning of the winners of the Popularity Contest as King and Queen, Prince and Princess. Wearing their crowns are Roger Squires and Jean Owen, while Annie Faye Salmons and Jimmy McDaniel receive theirs from Mrs. Bullington and Mr. Marks.

These people came to eat, drink and be merry at the annual carnival.
